Scholarship applicants may pursue coursework, or AA/BS degrees in early childhood education at the Community College of Rhode Island or Rhode Island College. Candidates must work directly with children or be an on-site center administrator for at least 30 hours per week; and earn less than $20.00 per hour. Scholarship recipients agree to work for their current employer or keep the child care home open for one year after completing a contract. Income is not a factor in approving scholarships. All R.I. licensed child care programs serving children infants through Pre-K are eligible to apply. T.E.A.C.H. is a licensed program of Child Care Association and is funded by Exceed, Rhode Island's cross departmental initiative to implement the work of the Race to the Top Early Learning Challenge Grant, and is administered by Ready to Learn Providence.
